HIGH SCHOOL ENGLISH

THE STUDY OF ENGLISH

By DOUGLAS GORDON CRAWFORD, Huntington School, Boston, formerly of Phillips Andover Academy.

A new high-school text that presents many good old principles in attractive form. It is a review of grammar, a discussion of the vital principles of composition; it gives some suggestions about penmanship, about speaking, and about reading aloud. Many selections for reading have been included, as well as choice bits of poetry. There is no tiresome lesson, no stumbling-block lesson, no useless lesson. The book makes high-school English charming though effective.

GOOD ENGLISH

By HENRY S. CANBY, Sheffield Scientific School, Yale University, and JOHN BAKER OPDYCKE, Julia Richman High School, New York City.

The fundamentals of good written and spoken English designed for pupils in Junior High Schools. How to Be Interesting, How to Be Clear, How to Be Convincing, How to Be Thorough, are the main divisions of the book and the authors use for illustrative material, letters, speeches, poems, advertisements, effective writing of all kinds.

National Week of Song February 16-22, 1919

For several years following the lead of "Normal Instructor and Primary Plans," the schools have set apart that week in February in which occurs the anniversary of Washington's Birthday as a "National Week of Song."

Now the whole Nation has been set singing and the entire month of February is made the month especially of Patriotic Songs.

The "Community Singing," "Victory Sings," "Liberty Sings" of the neighborhood should be linked up with the Schools in this festival of Patriotism.

Arrange a big get-together Sing-feast with children, parents, Sunday School, Church and everybody taking part.

The Victor will teach the entire program from its incomparable records
